A SINGULAR CASE.

An Attempt to Save a Man by Using the Blood of His Assailant.

(Georgetown (Col.) Miner.)

Last week we mentioned briefly the cutting of Frank Gray in the neck, by Thomas Korwin, Monday, June 5. At the time we penned the brief paragraph it was generally supposed that the wounded man would recover. The event, however, has proved that the affair was destined to terminate in a tragedy that was not at first anticipated.

The wounded man is dead and in his grave, and the murderer is safely locked up in jail.

Last Sunday night Gray, who was sleeping in an upper room in the Doyle

House, was seized with a fit of coughing and a fearful hemorrhage ensued.

He was alone at the time, and started for the door to give the alarm and have the physician sent for. The blood spurred in torrents from the wound, and before Dr. Lemon could reach him,

nearly a gallon of blood, it is estimated, had been pumped by the heart through the carotid artery. The result was that he was left almost lifeless.

During the day (Monday) he was gradually sinking, and for the most part lay in a semi-unconscious state. The attending physician determined, as a last resort, to try the effect of transfusing blood into his system. Korwin agreed to supply the blood, and shortly after dinner the experiment was made, Dr.

Lemon operating, assisted by Doctors

Todd and Van De Voort. We were present during the operation, and are free to say that we were surprised at the result. The poor fellow seemed in the very grasp of death before the operation commenced. We could detect no pulsation whatever at the wrist, and the same decision was given by the physician; his hands and feet were cold and clammy, like those of a corpse;

the eyes had

CITY DEPARTMENTS.

Nice new apples at Imboden's. New potatoes at Niedermyer's, near the Mount. New apples and a full line of choice vegetables at Newell & Hammer's.

Call on H. F. May & Bro. for pure Java coffee. Order Downing's hack for a drive about town.

B. F. Taylor's hack line meets all trains. Large spring chickens at Billy Niedermyer's, on West Main street.

R. C. Crocker has a full supply of hay, rakes and other utensils. Also a very complete and choice assortment of shelf hardware, carpenter's tools, stoves, tinware, iron and nails.

The excursion train which left here for Springfield yesterday morning under the management of the First M. E. church, returned yesterday evening, arriving here twenty minutes past seven, making the time in one hour and five minutes.

Muskey & Dodson are just more than making the people happy with their great bargains. Sales at auction and otherwise going on all the time. Notwithstanding the immense crowds which throng this mart of trade, customers are waited upon promptly and everybody goes away rejoicing.

Mrs. Cahn's Star Dramatic Troupe left today for Monticello, where they play two nights. They open the opera house here next week if the scene painter gets it completed in time.

Wanted.—By a gentleman, a furnished room without board in a good part of the city. Address, giving particulars, REPUBLICAN office.

Attention, Scalpers!—Republicans will remember that this evening a company of "Scalpers" will be organized at the court house for the campaign.

Hugh Cren, Esq., and (Hon.) Moore are to be speakers of the evening, and it is there they will be followed by other orators. Ladies are particularly invited, and as there will be in attendance to conduct them to seats. Turn out, everybody, and inaugurate the campaign with a rousing mass meeting.

To Old Settlers.—The old settlers of Macon county are requested to occupy seats upon the platform on the occasion of our Fourth of July celebration, as provision will be made for their accommodation.

J. R. GORIN, Marshal of the Day.

Vote On a Railroad Train.—Yesterday a vote for president was taken on the excursion train to Springfield, in which legal voters only participated, which resulted as follows: Hayes 80, Tilden 20, Cooper 8. We reckon that the November election will pan out about that way in Illinois with the exception of the vote for Cooper, which will be "nife."

Good Enough.—The net receipts from the Springfield excursion yesterday, foot up $193.40. This will be a nice little revenue for the society, secured without much trouble, and with but small expense to individuals.

Mrs. Democrat's Spring Patterns just opened, at Linn & Scruggs, near 14-st.

Black Iron Frame Grenadines, from the best quality down, low as 25 cents, at Linn & Scruggs.

V. Barber & Co. are still in the front rank of shoe dealers in Decatur, and in quality and extent of stock are excelled by none. New goods are coming in constantly, and assortments are kept full. This is the place to get whatever people want in that line.

International Exhibition for 1876.—Official Catalogue, complete, in one volume price, $1.00. For sale by May 30—d&wtf J. M. Stoney & Co.

An Elegant Assortment of Cassimere Suits, at B. STINE'S.

Keep's Patent Partly Made Shirts, $1.00, and the Manhattan shirts, made complete, $1.25—the best and cheapest shirts in the market, at Linn & Scruggs.

THE UNTRIED RATIO.

A Big Consumption of Tar and Cord Wood—A Large Republican Crowd—Democrats Rise and Fall Between—Speeches by Ewing, Nelson, Lee and Tilden—Cheers Given and Hats Thrown up for Hayes and Wheeler.

According to announcement, a Tilden and Hendricks rally meeting was held on the old square last night. In the course of the afternoon a pile of cord wood and other combustibles was thrown up on the old square, which like the platform which the meeting was called to ratify was "long drawn out" but mighty "thin."

About half past seven the band started from the old square and marched to the court house blowing for half an hour and nobody coming the master of ceremonies put out the lights and took his musicians out on another march, and finally drew them up in front of a platform which had been placed in position on the old square.

Soon appeared upon the stage John W. Smith, Esq., whose business seemed to be the introduction of the speakers.

When all was ready, the men who had been appointed for that purpose, called for "Charley" Ewing, who, of course taken by surprise, came forward.

Of the first speaker, Mr. Chas. A. Ewing, our special reporter has but little to say. In fact the speaker said but little himself, worth remembering. "How like Douglas he looks!" said the elderly ladies. "What a talker he is!" said the Democrats, and that's all.

The next speaker called was Major Nelson, who like the gentleman preceding him had spent two days in the St. Louis Convention, and had been thoroughly inspired with the "terribly earnest spirit which actuated" that ungodly mob. The Maj. was free to say that neither of the men put in nomination was his first choice. He had in his mind's eye other men that would have been more acceptable to him, but who those other men were the speaker did not disclose. The Maj. proceeded to say that he bowed to the inevitable, and should give the ticket his cordial support. The themes dwelt upon mainly were the corruptions of the Republican party, and the necessity of combining all the elements opposed to it in order to effect its overthrow. Allusion was made to the currency question and in that connection the speaker said that the Democratic party had determined upon a financial policy that would unloose capital and bring relief to the country, but what the policy is to be was not explained. Perhaps at some future time the Major will enlighten the people as to what the grand financial panacea is.

The next speaker was "Tommy" Lee who expressed the deepest anxiety to have the Government wrested from the hands of men who had barely escaped the "penitentiary."

Next came F. B. Tait, who for the first time plumed his wings and soared aloft as a Democratic orator. In detailing the record of Sammie Tilden as a reformer, Mr. Tait made some little statements that were wonderfully at variance with history, but it is fair to presume that history is at fault, and should stand corrected in the presence of the newly fledged Demosthenes. In concluding his remarks, Mr. Tait called upon the colored men present to assist in the election of the St. Louis nominees, whereupon a colored man in the crowd sang out "Hurrah for Hayes and Wheeler," and the crowd, which was largely Republican, caught the inspiration and gave three stirring cheers for the Cincinnati nominees.

It is estimated that there were about a thousand people in the crowd, seven hundred of whom at least were Republicans. Three cheers were called for the St. Louis nominees of St. Louis were feebly given, and the crowd dispersed.

Larceny From Cars.—Yesterday and day before, seven boys were arrested for stealing from cars standing on the track. Their names are John Kinder, Harry Kinder, Michael Divine, Patrick Ryan, Harrington, Peter Flynn, and Frank Shields. They were brought before Justice Albert yesterday afternoon, where they were held in the sum of fifty dollars each. John and Harry Kinder, and Frank Shields, obtained bail, but the other four were committed to jail. Their ages range from twelve to eighteen years. It is believed that there are several others in the gang who may yet be caught.

On their way to jail in charge of officer Misenhelter, one of the boys broke and ran, but was overtaken and recaptured by John Ulrich, Esq.

Change of Base on the Part of Railroad Offices.—Mr. P. Campbell, Assistant Superintendent of the Illinois Midland Railway, Mr. C. J. McPherson, train dispatcher for the same road, and Mr. Geo. Anthony, Road Master, have removed their respective offices to this city, and will from this time forward make their headquarters here. Yesterday afternoon we received a very pleasant call from the first named gentleman in company with Mr. E. P. Fairbanks, who is the official freight agent of the Midland, having his headquarters at Paris.

Wanted.—A good business man as partner in a good paying and selling article. Can be manufactured here. Sells at sight. Pays two hundred per cent. One or two thousand dollars required. Can be seen at R. Liddle's, Decatur, Ill. June 30-dtf.

For Mattresses, Hair, Wool or Moss—the best, call at ASHBY'S.

THE SPRINGFIELD EXCURSION

Under the Auspices of the First M. E. Church.

Notwithstanding the prevalence of clouds and rain for ten days, Providence vouchsafed a splendid day for the excursion yesterday. The air was cool and balmy, but not chilling, and the sun for the most part was obscured by clouds, so that there was nothing to interfere with the comfort of the excursionists. As early as half past six o'clock a large number were at the depot, and were filling the cars which stood upon the track. By seven o'clock the time fixed for starting, the five cars were nearly filled, and when the train drew up at the Water street crossing about two hundred more were waiting, who were obliged to pile in as best they could, crowding the five passenger coaches and a caboose to their utmost. As there were many children along three and four were crowded into a seat, while others stood in the aisle.

At about 7 o'clock the train left the point last named, and with two stops on the way, made the run to Springfield in an hour and nine minutes. Upon arriving at the Capital the excursionists divided into parties and went sightseeing as their preferences dictated. During the day nearly all of them visited Oak Ridge Park and Cemetery, and those who took refreshments with them took dinner in the first named place, which is simply provided with tables, seats and other accommodations adapted to picnic purposes. The new state house was also visited by most of the company, and other objects and points of interest. As early as five o'clock in the afternoon the excursionists commenced to gather at the depot and seat themselves in the cars for the return trip, and by half past six all were ready and the train pulled out. The home trip was made in an hour and eight minutes, and as the company disembarked all expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the entertainment, no accident having occurred, or anything transpired to mar the pleasure of the occasion. The net proceeds of the excursion are $102.40.

Much credit is due the committee, who were untiring in their efforts to contribute to the comfort and pleasure of the large party consisting of fully five hundred persons.

Watch Stolen.—Yesterday about noon a tramp entered the residence of Hugh Cren, Esq., and took a gold watch belonging to Mrs. Cren. The fellow has been about town begging for some days, and yesterday entered the house named as is supposed for the purpose of soliciting money. Upon entering the sitting room it was vacant, Mrs. Cren having stepped out for a moment. The lady's watch was lying upon the mantle shelf, and was at once noticed by the quick eye of the tramp, who took it and left the house. A little girl was playing in the yard at the time and saw the fellow as he came out. She immediately ran in and asked her mother what man that was that had been there, stating that she had just seen one go away.

Mrs. Cren suspecting something wrong stepped into the sitting room, and upon looking for her watch saw that it was gone. The officers were at once notified but up to this writing no trace of the thief has been obtained. He had been in the neighborhood during the morning begging from house to house. From Mr. Cren's he was seen to go in a westerly direction, since which time nothing has been seen of him. As he has but one arm he will be easily recognized should he be caught.

When rebel foes assailed our flag And sought the Union to destroy, Hayes was a man for all the front.

A gallant soldier boy, While Tilden sat at his ease On velvet cushions fine, Smoking the best Havanas And drinking champagne wine Now Hayes will be our president For this the people say.

We will surely vote for him On next election day. While Tilden will stay at Wall Street And guard his bonds and gold, And wonder that the people Can not be bought and sold.

For a good Bed-spring, cheap, call at ASHBY'S.

The Diamond Piano.—Miss Ida Loughboro has a fine present in the shape of one of those beautiful, sweet-toned Diamond Pianos. Miss Ida is to be congratulated for the instrument is really a fine one. It was purchased of P. T. Locke & Co.

Attention, Fire Department.—All firemen of the Department are requested to meet at Firemen's Hall on West Main street, at the top of the hill, on Friday evening, June 30th, for the transaction of important business. By order, H. B. DUNFEE, Chief. EDWIN CARTER, Sec'y.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Wm L. Chambers, Esq., of Clinton, in town. He says many of the sturdy old Democrats of DeWitt county swear they will not vote for Slippery Sam.

Wesley Hooker, Esq., editor of the Cortland (N. Y.) Standard, called at the Republican office this morning. Mr. H. is an old politician, and is thoroughly posted in the politics of New York. He says Tilden is exceedingly unpopular with his party in his own State, and stands no chance of carrying it. The reasons Mr. H. gave for reaching such a conclusion are plausible, and when he gave us his hand to say good-by he observed that if Tilden carried New York in November he would agree never to show his face in Illinois again. It is to be hoped that he is right in his opinion.
